“Integration in Greater Eurasia: Risks and Opportunities”

15 March 2017

14:00–16:00

The Ritz-Carlton, 3, Tverskaya str., Ballroom II

FORUM PARTNERS:

NATIONAL CENTER FOR ASIA-PACIFIC COOPERATION

The participants of the Forum will discuss existing and proposed trade agreements in Greater Eurasia; regional and integration projects (Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU), APEC, ASEAN, Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP), Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) and other free trade zones, Silk Road Economic Belt (SREB), EAEU – SREB conjunction); changing business environment, opportunities and risks for businesses arising from these processes; as well as Russian and international companies' experience in the Asia-Pacific markets. The representatives of government, business and expert community will explore the state of play, plans and expectations from future EAEU trade agreements and their potential in enhancing the Union's attractiveness and business opportunities in member countries. The discussion will seek to find a balance between domestic efforts to promote export and active trade policy.
